payment of Rs 50 a month from the Jahagir funds. The lady has represented that she was getting Rs 50/- a month out of the Jahagir income and that the payment of this amount has since been stopped

So far as her request for the grant of a suitable monthly grant out of the State Revenues, is concerned, the Financial Secretary may perhaps deal with this request as similar requests are being dealt with in that Secretariat.

In regard to the request for the grant of Rs 50 a month out of the Jahagir funds, according to section 5(3) of the Jahagir Act any person having a claim to the whole or part of an annuity payable under this Act may prefer such claim to the Jahagirdar of Velanai who shall enquire into such claim and pass his decision thereon in accordance with this Act. From any decision passed by the Jahagirdar of Velanai, an appeal shall lie to first whose order on such appeal shall be final. It rests whether the lady may be informed accordingly. It is however doubtful whether the lady has any genuine claim to the Annuity payable under the Jahagir Act

On the other petitions, the Revenue & Finance Minister has been pleased to make as follows.

The late Mr. B. Venkoba Rao entered service on 20th September 1901 and died in harness in 1926 after service of nearly 25 years. The scheme of compassion gratuity was brought into force from 31st January 1929 about 3 years after this officer died. If the scheme had been in force on the date of the death of the officer, his heirs would have been entitled to the bene of it. Having regard to the salaries drawn by this Officer who started as an Assistant Commissioner and was a ~~fFi~~ First Class Deputy Commissioner at the time of his death and the ~~wauk~~ family would easily have bee entitled to a gratuity of Rs.10,000/- payable in annuities, the term being not less than 10 years.

This is a pitiable case. The wife of a senior member of the Civil Service & a member of the Previous family, she deserves sympathetic help. Something should be done. A special pension of Rs 50/- per mensem may be given during her life time. This is not too much as if Mr V. Rao had died three years later his widow would have got a Compassionate gratuity of a bigger amount though for a shorter period.

Chief Secretary to Government.

Final Note by the Minister for Finance and Revenue.

Subject.— Proposal to sanction a special pension of Rs.50/- per mensem to Sri Saraswati Bai, wife of late Mr. B. Venkoba Rao.

Pg A These papers relate to the prayer of Srimathi Saraswati Bai, widow of late Mr. B. Venkoba Rao, Deputy Commissioner, Mysore Civil Service, for the grant of a special pension to her.

Srimathi Saraswati Bai is the daughter of late Mr.P.Poornaiya, Excise Commissioner in Mysore, and the niece of the late Sir P.N.Krishn Murthy, Dewan of Mysore and Jahagirdar of Yelandur. Her husband, the late Mr. Venkoba Rao, joined the Civil Service on 20th September 1901 after passing the Mysore Civil Service Examination and died in harness in 1926, after a service of nearly 26 years and was holding the post of a First Class Deputy Commissioner at the time of his death. The lady has represented that although her husband left considerable properties behind him at the time of his death, she has now become absolutely destitute and helpless owing to several circumstances and that due to her helplessness, she has been maintaining herself on the charity of others. She has prayed that in view of her dire poverty the Government may be pleased to sanction a suitable monthly grant from the State revenues to enable her to lead a peaceful and quiet life during the rest of her life.

The scheme of compassionate gratuity which provides for the grant of suitable annuities to the dependents of officers who die whil in service was brought into force from 30th January 1929, i.e., about three years after Mr. Venkoba Rao died and consequently no gratuity could be paid to this lady under the scheme.

As the petitioner happens to be the wife of a senior member of the Civil Service and as she also belongs to a premier family in the State, it was considered that her case deserved sympathy and help.

The subject was considered at a meeting of the Council held on the 2nd February 1943 when it was resolved that Sri Saraswathi Bai may be given a compassionate subsistence allowance of Rs.50/- per mensem, till her death.

The resolution of the Council may be graciously approved.

Sir,

CP 26/9

I, Saraswathi Bai the widow of the late Mr.B. Venkoba Rao the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore Service beg to bring the following few facts for your beneign consideration and help at your hands.

(1) That I am the daughter of the late Mr.Purnia the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore and the niece of the late Sir of P.N.Krishna Murthi,K.C.I.E., Dewan of Mysore.

(2) That my husband the late Mr. Venkoba Rao served the Mysore Government in various capacity and died suddenly as Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District after a service of over 25 years in 1926 leaving behind me childless and as his sole heir.

(3) That at the time of his death he left considerable properties behind him and that I was in management of the same.

(4) That I had many dependants among my closest relations such as mother, a widowed sister and her children and that I was looking after them.

That as I felt difficulty in carefully managing my properties I entrusted the management of these properties which were mostly cash and jewels to my brother-in-law Mr. D.K.Rama Rao who was then a Judge of the Hign Court of Mysore and who then posed himself as my well wisher and interested in me.

That he borrowed for his personal purposes from me a sum of over Rs 30,000/-.

That I came to know gradually that he was using my properties for his purposes and that he failed to render accounts for the same.

That as a result of his management all the properties even to the last pie has been wasted.

That as a result of this I am left helpless with nothing to live upon.

That I have no properties of any kind now and that for the loan taken by my brother-in-law I filed a suit against him in forma pauperis and obtained a decree in the District Court here for over Rs.40,000/- but that I am unable to recover anything from him till now as he pleads inability to pay it inspite of my executing the decree against him and the High Court have upheld his plea.

That as a consequence of this a large sum due to me remains unpaid.

That when my uncle the late Sir P.N.Krishna Murthi who was also the Jahagirdar of Yelandur was alive he was giving me Rs.50/- a month out of the Jahagir income to me for my personal expenses and for [illegible]

That this payment continued till his death and that after his death his successor for no fault of ~~ours~~ mine stopped the payment inspite of my prayer to continue the payment.

That then as I was in affluent circumstances and as my husband was alive I did not take proper steps to compel the Jahagirdar to continue the payment and as the Jahagirdar happened to be my eldest brother.

That as a member of the Jahagirdar's family I am entitled to be maintained out of the Jahagir income.

That at present I have no means to maintain myself having lost every thing even to the last pie due to the unfortunate mismanagement of my estate by my brother-in-law and due to the inability of my recovering the heavy decree amount referred to above.

That I am depending for my daily food and clothing on the bounty of the Public and of my relations.

That from my childhood I was brought up in the most affluent circumstances and that due to my helplessness now I am undergoing untold misery both for food and clotning and I have to walk daily miles together to meet my relations for help as I have not got money even to pay the charges of ordinary conveyance.

That I am reduced to such dire poverty that I am obliged to seek your help in reviving the monthly grant of Rs 50/- given to me from the Jahagir funds for my life.

That I am now over 52 years of age and unable to go to my relations daily for food and on some days I have to starve even.

That I mean setting up a small establishment to keep beyond want in my old age if my appeal to you brings financial help to me.

I therefore request you to take pity on me and on my helpless condition and to order the payment of at least Rs 50/- a month for my life as before to maintain myself from the Jahagir Funds. If no help is given to me I may mention to you frankly that I will have to end my life in starvation. I hope my appeal will not go in vain.

For which act of kindness and generosity I will be ever grateful to you and to the Jahagir.

I beg to remain,
